

Living with the Law

In cooperation with the Latino Leadership Council and Other Sponsors

Present the 2019 D.C. Statehood Film Festival

Up to $2500 will be awarded to the winner(s) - May 24, 2019 - 5:30 p.m. Short films; five minutes or less that explain and/or promote D.C. Statehood will be screened. Ten final films will be selected and shown at the Film Festival. Submit your film by 1 May 2019 to Johnny Barnes; P.O. Box 70015 - D.C.

Moderator Franklin Garcia is the US Representative (Shadow) for Washington D.C.
Both Events are Free and Open to the Public - Limited Seating

Film Festival Followed at 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. By

The D.C. Statehood Annual Teach – In

A Panel of Experts, consisting of primarily current and former Congressional Staffers, Democrats and Republicans, as well as Academicians will discuss the pros and cons of D.C. Statehood. Attorney Barnes will discuss a lawsuit as an option to achieving D.C. Statehood

Moderator Dr. Michael Fauntroy is Associate Professor of Political Science; Associate Chair, and Graduate Program Director at Howard University

Both Events will take place at The Carnegie Institution - 16th and "P" N.W.
Get Your Free Tickets at <http://sandraashepreleaseconcert.eventbrite.com>

